3 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Item 2, Criminal 2002-350-AHM,
4 USA vs. Stephen William Sutcliffe.

5 Appearances, counsel.

6 MR. ALIKHAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

7 I am Arif Alikhan. I'm standing in for Assistant
8 U.S. Attorney Elena Duarte.

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon to you.

10 MS. BEDNARSKI: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

11 Marilyn Bednarski and Hiliary Potashner, also
12 present in court is Mr. Steven Sutcliffe.

13 THE COURT: Good afternoon to all three of you.

14 And Mr. Harris, would you please approach the 15 lectern and make your appearance as well.

16 MR. HARRIS: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

17 Bill Harris here at the Court's request.

18 THE COURT: The reason I requested Mr. Harris to be 19 here is that, as I told you I would do when you last were 20 here, Mr. Sutcliffe, I have arranged for a lawyer to be 21 appointed from the Court's Indigent Defense Panel to be your 22 lawyer in this case.

23 Ordinarily I could have arranged for that without 24 any court appearance, but I did something unusual in 25 scheduling this hearing because I wanted to explain

1 something to you, so please listen very carefully.

2 I know Mr. Harris, although entirely on a
3 professional basis, he has been before me on many occasions
4 and coincidentally he happened to be here in court for at
5 least part of the proceeding a couple of days ago. He's a
6 lawyer who fights remarkably hard and vigorously, honestly
7 and effectively for his clients.

8 Now I can't guarantee any particular chemistry
9 between a lawyer and his client or a client and his lawyer,
10 but I want you to understand that I really doubt very much
11 whether under the circumstances that you are currently
12 proceeding in this case that you will be able to find, no
13 matter how difficult it may be, to have all your wishes
14 accommodated a lawyer better equipped and more dedicated to 15 servicing your interest than Mr. Harris.

16 I'm not vouching for any particular thing he will
17 do because I don't know what he will do and most of what he
18 will do I probably won't learn about because a lot of it
19 behind the scenes.

20 But you now have a lawyer. I have the authority to 21 appoint Mr. Harris. I am appointing him and that completes
22 the arrangements that we made on Monday pending which the 23 substitution of counsel that was the subject of that
24 proceeding had it yet to be completed.

25 Now I already made a very clear record, I believe,

1 as to the duties I expect the lawyers who are here from the
2 Public Defender's office to carry out in the process of 3 transition.

4 Mr. Harris, are you aware of the trial date on this
5 case?

6 MR. HARRIS: Yes, December 3, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And I intend to do my best along
8 with my staff, and I expect the lawyers will be doing the 9 same to make sure that we are ready to go on December 3rd.

10 Mr. Sutcliffe has requested that a transcript be 11 compiled of a much earlier proceeding involving an
12 application he made to me to reconsider -- well, actually
13 the application, I believe, was made by the U.S. Attorney's
14 office to have the terms of bail that was set by a
15 magistrate judge changed and I granted that and as a result,
16 Mr. Sutcliffe is currently in custody.

17 That's an issue I know that he wants to have 18 reconsidered. I have not told him that it necessarily will 19 be. I think that's a question for you and he to explore and 20 you will, as every lawyer, will continue to enjoy the right
21 to form your own independent conclusions based on your best
22 judgment as to what's in your client's interest and to 23 discuss that with him. But I have ordered the transcript to 24 be compiled. And as soon as it is available my staff will 25 let you, Mr. Harris, know and you can proceed accordingly.

1 MR. HARRIS: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Is there anything further that needs to
3 be addressed this afternoon?

4 Mr. Sutcliffe.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor, I have two
6 concerns, one regarding communication with my new counsel,
7 which I appreciate you appointing for me. Currently in MDC
8 all my phone calls are subject to monitoring and I cherish
9 the attorney-client privilege and I waive it only in extreme
10 circumstances.

11 Secondly, to call counsel would he accept collect
12 phone calls?

13 MR. HARRIS: Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right, you got an answer from him.
15 The answer is yes.

16 And as far as a means and methods that are adopted
17 by the Bureau of Prisons in administering the facility at 18 the MDC, which do involve the right and often the exercise
19 of recording certain calls I'm not going to make any ruling
20 and I'm not going to interfere with what is the ordinary
21 practice.

22 I can tell you Mr. Harris is very familiar with how 23 the MDC functions and you and he will do the best to 24 accomplish what you need to and he will be able to assure
25 you that whatever you discuss with each other remains

1 confidential unless it's authorized for disclosure.

2 Okay, I think that takes of care everything. We
3 are adjourned.

4 (Whereupon, the hearing was concluded at 1:20 p.m.)
