Honorable A. Howard Matz

17 Plaintiff United States of America, through its attorney of 18 record, Assistant United States Attorney Elena J. Duarte, hereby 19 respectfully submits this status filing regarding Speedy Trial (18 20 U.S.C. § 3161 et seq.) calculations and exclusions made in the 21 instant criminal case thus far. From the government's calculation,
22 based on the criminal docket, or Clerk's Record ("CR"), as outlined
23 below, 39 days of the 70 days permitted under the Speedy Trial Act 24 have passed. 31 days remain. As time is currently excluded from 25 calculation under the Speedy Trial Act through and including 26 September 9, 2003 (C.R. 145, 157), this means that the trial could 27 properly begin as late as October 10, 2003, even assuming there are 28 no additional exclusions of time under the Act.
