Appellant on 10.07.2006 filed an OBJECTION TO APPOINTMENT OF CONFLICTED COUNSEL FROM FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDERS OFFICE. MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL FOR CONFLICT AND INCOMPETENCE: MOTION TO REPRESENT SELF UNDER THE DURESS: FACTS: DECLARATION. (See DOCKET 10/12/07)

This motion was based on Appellant's previously filed: OBJECTION TO MOTION OF SUNG B. PARK TO BE RELIEVED AS COUNSEL OF RECORD; MOTION FOR THE REAPPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL; MOTION FOR THE CLARIFICATION OF THIS COURT'S ORDER RELIEVING ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL FOR APPELLANT (Served on 7/5/07, see DOCKET 10/12/07).

This court then formed a quick OPINION that Mr. Sutcliffe had in fact "transferred" the information and issued their OPINION on 10/11/07, relying primarily on statements previous given during oral argument on 2/7/07, wherein conflicted Federal Public Defender Sung Park "admitted" to this court what Mr. Sutcliffe has vehemently denied in the past and presently denies, namely that Mr. Sutcliffe "transferred" anything.^{1 2} Without ruling on the OBJECTION TO APPOINTMENT OF CONFLICTED COUNSEL FROM FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDERS OFFICE. MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL FOR CONFLICT AND INCOMPETENCE this court is now using its own inaction and more specifically the inaction and incompetence of the newest conflicted attorney, William Melcher, to rule on the conflict thereby denying Mr. Sutcliffe the right to Petition for Reconsideration and/or Petition For

Rehearing En Banc. (See DOCKET 10/26/07) Appellant OBJECTS and request the court “slow the roll” and rule on the previous MOTION. Appellant’s OBJECTION TO APPOINTMENT OF CONFLICTED COUNSEL FROM FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDERS OFFICE. MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL FOR CONFLICT AND INCOMPETENCE is first in line BEFORE this courts motion denying Appellant’s right to be able to file for a rehearing. To put it simply, first in line means first served.³ Moreover this court has been aware of this conflict since January 7, 2005, when Attorney Rome was appointed through the Federal Public Defender’s office. (See Exhibit A, Page 3 and 5, attached hereto).⁴

Appellant also objects to the Court “reclassifying” the previous PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION as being filed “Pro Se,” when the PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION is clearly marked and signed as proceeding only as by the “Sui Juris.”⁵ Appellant OBJECTS to this “sudden” reclassification and any such assertion is a mistake and/or a lie.⁶

CONCLUSION

The Due Process Clause requires that this court should forthwith issue a ruling on the previously filed: OBJECTION TO APPOINTMENT OF CONFLICTED COUNSEL FROM FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDERS OFFICE. MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL FOR CONFLICT AND INCOMPETENCE.

Moreover, Due Process requires that this court should forthwith file the PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION to correct the record and docket.

³ This court’s behavior appears to be exactly like the district case wherein that court refused to rule on Sutcliffe’s motion to remove FOISTED Public Defender Gregory Nicolaysen, and instead ruled on FOISTED Public Defender Gregory Nicolaysen’s motion to be relieved, without even hearing Sutcliffe’s motion which was filed before FOISTED Public Defender Gregory Nicolaysen’s motion. (See PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION, Page 14, section 18)

⁴ “The second and more significant issue is that of my ‘appointed’ appellate attorney, Richard Rome. The United States Federal Public Defender’s Office (‘FPD’) disqualified itself to avoid being held and/or found incompetent. Apparently, however, they “appointed” Mr. Rome to represent me on appeal. Mr. Rome has told me he was appointed by the Ninth Circuit. In an ORDER to appoint counsel, filed 06.24.2004, in the Ninth Circuit it stated that the Clerk “shall serve a copy of this order ...on [the] Federal Public Defenders Office...who will locate appointed counsel [for the defendant]. Round and around we go and here I sit and sit and sit... If this Court is not inclined to order the appointment of new appellate counsel, I would request that I be permitted to proceed on appeal (all of the appeals) in sui juris.

⁶ This sudden reclassification appears to be a most fortuitous event for all parties but Mr. Sutcliffe, considering how it is now being used against Mr. Sutcliffe to prevent the court ruling on, or even filing his PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION, much like the failure to rule on the MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL FOR CONFLICT AND INCOMPETENCE.
